THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI OSCAR FERNANDES): (a) and (b) Strike in Jute mills falls in the State sphere. In this case State Government of West Bengal is the appropriate Government and, therefore, legally vested with the powers to intervene in the matter. Government of West Bengal have informed that they have received the joint memorandum from Central trade unions to intervene into the ongoing strike in jute mills of West Bengal. The State Government is very much concerned on the prolonged strike in jute industry and is vigorously striving to come to a solution. Nine joint conferences and several separate discussions have been held. Tripartite negotiations are still going on. Minister of State (IC) for Labour & Employment had also called a meeting of the representatives of the Central Trade Unions, local trade unions of West Bengal, Jute Mill Owners, Officers of the West Bengal Government and Ministry of Textiles on 14.02.07 but the dispute could not be resolved.
